

WORK CONNECT

Are you a contractor, business, or homeowner in need of help with an odd job, or an extra pair of hands on a big project? If so call the Work Connect job bank. The job bank is open Mon., Wed., and Fri. 7:00 a.m - 12:00 noon.

Work Connect Day workers can do many types of casual employment--cutting grass, unloading boxes, house cleaning, babysitting, painting inside or out, weeding, planting, bricklaying, snow removal, or any number of other jobs that last for anywhere from a couple of hours to a couple of days.

The Work Connect group is open to both men and women of all races, ethnic backgrounds and language preferences. We hold meetings on the first Wednesday of every month. Our mission is to help day workers improve their chances for permanent employment through advocacy and information.

If you are interested in joining, attending a meeting, or volunteering for the Work Connect community group please contact us at 908-788-8811.

For more information about Work Connect please visit our website at www.projectworkconnect.com or email us at workconnectinfo@gmail.com.

While we will share your job bank posting with our membership, we are not an employment agency. We represent neither the employee nor the employer, nor do we do background checks or verify skills and abilities. Any employer or worker who participates in the Work Connect job bank program shall be solely responsible for compliance with all federal and state employment laws including, but not limited to, federal and state immigration, wage/hour occupational safety and discrimination status.
